Robbins Schwartz

1

Background on the Title IX Investigator Role

2

Although the information contained herein is considered accurate, it is not, nor should it be construed to be legal advice. If you have an individual problem or incident that involves a topic covered in this document, please seek a legal opinion that is based upon the facts of your particular case.

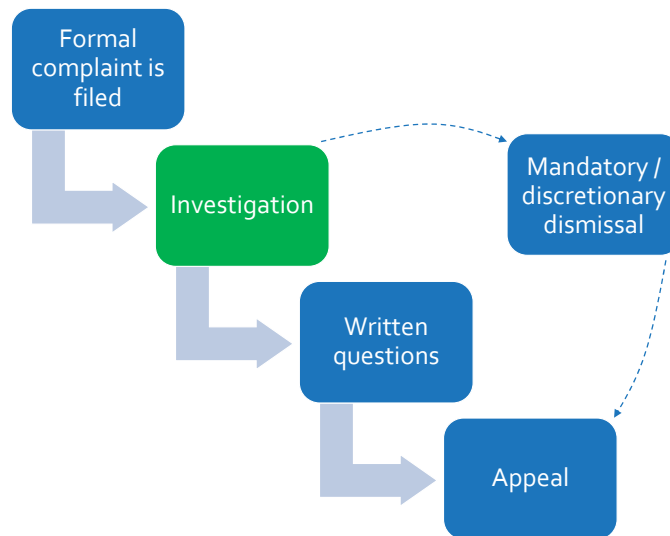

Background: Changes to Investigations

- Districts can no longer use a “single investigator” model
 - An investigator assigned to a formal complaint may not serve as a decision-maker for that complaint.
- Title IX Coordinator may serve as an investigator, but not as a decision-maker
- Districts must provide the parties with equal access to inspect and review the evidence
- Investigator must submit an investigation report summarizing the relevant evidence

Robbins Schwartz

3

Background: Overview of Grievance Process

Robbins Schwartz

4

Background: Key Definitions

- Title IX sexual harassment
 - Quid pro quo harassment by a district employee
 - Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal access to the education program or activity
 - Sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence or stalking
- Education program or activity
 - locations, events, or circumstances over which the district exercised substantial control over both the Respondent and the context in which the sexual harassment occurred, and
- Complainant
 - An individual alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment

Robbins Schwartz

5

Conflicts of Interest and Bias

Robbins Schwartz

6

Conflict of Interest & Bias

- Any Title IX investigator must not have a conflict of interest or bias for or against:
 - Complainants or Respondents generally; or
 - An individual Complainant or Respondent.
- Can be a basis for appeal if it affects the outcome

Robbins Schwartz

7

Conflicts of Interest

- Key question: Does the Investigator's prior or existing relationship with or knowledge of a party prevent the Investigator from serving impartially?

Robbins Schwartz

8

Conflicts of Interest

- Where you self-identify a conflict of interest, notify the Title IX Coordinator that you will need to recuse yourself.
- Where a party believes that you have a prohibited conflict of interest, the party must contact the Title IX Coordinator to request a substitution.
 - The Title IX Coordinator may request information from you to help him/her evaluate the claim.

Robbins Schwartz

9

Hypothetical: Conflicts of Interest

- You serve on the District's threat assessment team. At a recent team meeting, you took part in a decision to remove a respondent from the District's educational program on an emergency basis. The District subsequently conducted a Title IX investigation with respect to that respondent, and you have just been appointed to serve as an Investigator for the case.
 - Do you have a conflict of interest?

Robbins Schwartz

10

How to Address Implicit Bias

- More deliberate or conscious thinking
 - Allow time to fully think through a scenario before coming to a decision / conclusion
- Create and follow checklists
 - Procedural requirements
 - Allegations to be proven / disproven
- Document treatment of both parties and ensure it remains equitable
 - Opportunities to provide evidence
 - Details of the parties' interviews (time to prepare, breaks, advisors' roles, etc.)
 - Access to relevant evidence
 - Offering flexibility or granting requests for accommodations

Robbins Schwartz

11

Spotting the Elements of Title IX Sexual Harassment

Robbins Schwartz

12

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Quid Pro Quo

- When an employee of the district conditions aid, benefits, pay, a position, grades, discipline, or opportunities for advancement on unwelcome sexual conduct.
 - Example: Mr. Jones promises his student, Jane, that he will write a strong recommendation letter for her if she engages in sexual conduct after class.
 - Example: Ms. Smith tells her subordinate, Bob, that he should "just play along" with a vendor's sexual advances and "take one for the team" since his performance review is coming up.

Robbins Schwartz

13

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Quid Pro Quo

- When accepting or performing unwanted sexual conduct is required:
 - To access some benefit, or
 - To avoid some negative consequence
- Key elements:
 - Employee Respondent
 - Exchange of "this for that"
- Can be explicit or implicit

Robbins Schwartz

14

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Hypothetical

- Jane alleges that her teacher Mr. Jones started giving her lower grades on her assignments after she turned down his requests to take her on a date.
- What specific information and evidence would you want to gather?
- What steps would you take to investigate these allegations?

Robbins Schwartz

15

Title IX Sexual Harassment: “Hostile Environment”

- Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it denies a person equal access to the education program or activity

Robbins Schwartz

16

Title IX Sexual Harassment: "Hostile Environment"

- Key elements:
 - Unwelcome conduct
 - Severe and pervasive and offensive
 - Severity factors: age of Respondent, relationship of the parties, physical contact, etc.
 - Pervasiveness factors: affecting other school/work relationships, incidents in multiple contexts, conduct repeated over time, etc.
 - Offensiveness: humiliation, threats, physical safety, interference with work/learning, "hostile or abusive," etc.
 - Denial of equal access
 - Examples: falling grades, limiting enrollment in classes, student group participation, positions or assignments, job benefits, etc.

Robbins Schwartz

17

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Hypothetical

- Mike, a custodian, alleges that his coworker Joe regularly slapped him on the butt with an "atta boy" at the end of his shifts. Mike says that he asked Joe to stop, but Joe responded, "You should enjoy it," and that Joe now often comments on Mike's sexuality and tries to slap Mike's butt unexpectedly.
 - What specific information and evidence would you want to gather?
 - What steps would you take to investigate these allegations?

Robbins Schwartz

18

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Other Categories

• Title IX's definition of sexual harassment also includes:

- Sexual Assault
- Dating Violence
- Domestic Violence
- Stalking

As defined under the Clery Act/Violence Against Women Act

Robbins Schwartz

19

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Sexual Assault

Sexual Assault

- An offense that meets the definition of rape, fondling, incest, or statutory rape as used in the FBI's Uniform Crime Reporting program
- Generally, forcible sexual contact or sexual contact without consent due to incapacitation, intoxication, or age
- Incest: sexual contact between individuals with a familial relationship of a degree prohibiting marriage

Robbins Schwartz

20

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Dating Violence & Stalking

Dating Violence

- Violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim.

Stalking

- Engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to –
 - Fear for the person's safety or the safety of others; or
 - Suffer substantial emotional distress.

Robbins Schwartz

21

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Domestic Violence

- A felony or misdemeanor crime of violence committed:
 - By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
 - By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
 - By a person who is cohabitating with, or has cohabitated with, the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
 - By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
 - By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected.

Robbins Schwartz

22

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Hypothetical

- A student alleges that her boyfriend, who is also a student, physically abused her while they were at school.
- What specific information and evidence would you want to gather?
- What steps would you take to investigate these allegations?

Robbins Schwartz

23

Title IX Sexual Harassment: Hypothetical

- A student alleges that her coach has been telling her that she reminds him of his ex-wife. She also says her coach refers to her by his ex-wife's name when she makes a mistake, and calls her "Doll," his ex-wife's nickname, when she does something well.
- The student alleges that her coach's taunts have gotten raunchier and are distracting her, and he is keeping her on the bench more as her performance deteriorates.
- What kind(s) of sexual harassment are you investigating?
- What additional facts do you need to ask about?

Robbins Schwartz

24

Other Relevant Laws

- The below laws also may be relevant to allegations of sexual harassment:
 - Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”)
 - Illinois Human Rights Act (“IHRA”)
 - Abused and Neglected Child Reporting Act (“ANCRA”)
 - Every Student Succeeds Act (“ESSA”)

Robbins Schwartz

25

Conducting Investigatory Interviews

Robbins Schwartz

26

Investigatory Interviews: Title IX Requirements

- Send notice of any interview or meeting and give each party sufficient time to prepare.
- Give the parties an equal opportunity to select advisor of their choice.
- Provide equal opportunity to present fact and expert witnesses and other inculpatory and exculpatory evidence.
- Avoid “gag orders.”
 - The district must not restrict the ability of either party to discuss the allegations.

Robbins Schwartz

27

Investigatory Interviews: Preparation

- Review:
 - The allegations
 - Relevant policies and procedures
 - Relevant student or employee records
 - Any documentary evidence received so far
- As applicable, check for employee notice or union representation requirements
- Decide whether to conduct the interview by videoconference, in person, or by phone
- Schedule meetings promptly
 - Notice Letter of Investigative Interview

Robbins Schwartz

28

Investigatory Interviews: Hypothetical

- You are trying to schedule interviews with a student, a teacher, and a community member. All three are either not responding to you or outright refusing to participate.
 - What can you do to try to convince them?
 - If they still will not participate, how do you proceed?

Robbins Schwartz

29

Investigatory Interviews: Preparation

- Plan your questions, considering:
 - Specific parts of the relevant definition(s) of sexual harassment and other misconduct
 - How to ask about the specific allegations objectively and equitably
 - What additional facts might be helpful
 - “Point me in the right direction” questions
- Plan how to begin and end the interview

Robbins Schwartz

30

Investigative Interviews: Advisors

- Both parties may select an advisor of their choosing
 - May, but need not be, an attorney
- Advisor's role is to provide support, guidance, advice
 - May not answer on behalf of the party
- Parameters for both parties' advisors must be the same

Robbins Schwartz

31

Investigative Interviews: Hypothetical

- You are interviewing Jill, an employee who has been accused of sexual harassment. Jill brought her attorney Jack as her advisor, and Jack is making the interview difficult.
- What should you do if Jack:
 - repeatedly answers for Jill or "clarifies" her testimony?
 - objects to most of your questions and tells Jill she doesn't have to answer?
 - demands to see evidence or have questions answered before Jill answers?

Robbins Schwartz

32

Investigative Interviews: Questioning

- Open-ended questions are best
 - Closed-ended:
 - Q: "Were you in Frank's office when the phone rang?"
 - A: "No."
 - Open-ended:
 - Q: "Where were you when the phone rang?"
 - A: "I was in the hallway outside Frank's office."

Robbins Schwartz

33

Investigative Interviews: Questioning

- Avoid multiple choice questions
 - Bad Example: "Where were you when the phone rang—in Frank's office, in the hallway, or in the stairwell?"
- Avoid compound questions
 - Bad Example: "Where were you and who were you with when the phone rang?"

Robbins Schwartz

34

Investigative Interviews: Questioning

- The interviewee must fully understand the question to give a reliable answer
- If the interviewee asks you to repeat or rephrase a question, you should do so
- Give the interviewee time to think and respond before asking the next question

Robbins Schwartz

35

Investigative Interviews: Questioning

- Complete a line of questioning before moving on to questioning about a different issue
- When possible, clarify issues on which there is conflicting testimony before concluding the interview

Robbins Schwartz

36

Investigations: Questioning

- Allow the interviewee to respond to each factual allegation
- Do not hesitate to ask follow-up questions
- Ask whether any witnesses can confirm the interviewee's testimony
- Obtain names and, if necessary, contact information for witnesses

Robbins Schwartz

37

Investigatory Interviews: Credibility

- Factors for determining credibility of a witness:
 - Does the witness have personal knowledge of the facts?
 - Does the witness have any reason to be untruthful?
 - Does the witness have a bias, hostility, or some attitude that affected the truthfulness of their testimony?
 - Does the witness have a special relationship with a party?
 - Was the witness's testimony consistent with other testimony or the evidence presented?
 - Has the witness made inconsistent statements?
 - Is there evidence of trauma that could impact the witness' testimony?

Robbins Schwartz

38

Investigatory Interviews: Credibility

- Quality over quantity: the testimony of a single, disinterested witness is more reliable than the testimony of multiple biased witnesses
- Example:
 - The District's baseball coach is the Respondent and is alleged to have sexually assaulted the Complainant in the athletic training room immediately after a game
 - Which testimony is more reliable in an interview:
 - The testimony from 4 players stating that they were with the Respondent at a restaurant immediately after the game, or
 - The testimony from a waiter at the restaurant stating he served the Respondent at the restaurant immediately after the game

Robbins Schwartz

39

Investigatory Interviews: Employee Respondents

- As applicable, include the right to union representation in the notice and check other CBA requirements
- Request that they document testimony by a written, signed statement or fact chronology
- Document union representation, any critical factual admissions, and the opportunity to respond to allegations

Robbins Schwartz

40

Investigatory Interviews: Minor Students

- For cases involving sexual abuse, coordinate with DCFS, Children's Advocacy Center, and/or law enforcement
- Allow parent/guardian in addition to an advisor
- Account for developmental stages
 - Check that the student understands the question
 - Ask the same question different ways
 - Use appropriate standards for credibility

Robbins Schwartz

41

Investigatory Interviews: Other Best Practices

- Avoid volunteering information
- Never promise confidentiality
- Have a second Investigator or administrator/ non-union employee present to help with notetaking
 - Take your own notes at or immediately afterward
 - Give a basis for your credibility assessments
- Advise that retaliation is prohibited
 - "Gag orders" vs. prohibiting harassment, discrimination, or retaliation

Robbins Schwartz

42

Investigative Interviews: Hypothetical

- Bonnie alleges that her coworker Clyde has been using his work laptop to cyberstalk her. Bonnie also reported the stalking to local law enforcement, with whom you have coordinated the timing of your interview of Clyde.
- Clyde comes to the interview but refuses to answer some questions, asserting his Fifth Amendment right against self-incrimination.
 - How do you respond?

Robbins Schwartz

43

Evidence and Investigative Report Procedures

Robbins Schwartz

44

Investigation: Relevant Evidence

- “Relevant” includes relevant to determining:
 - The truth or falsity of specific factual allegations
 - Evidence about nature and circumstances of misconduct
 - Evidence affecting credibility
 - Whether the facts establish an element of the relevant type(s) of sexual harassment
 - Evidence about intent or consent
 - Evidence about impacts of any misconduct
 - Other evidence that would inform a reasonable person’s perception of the conduct
- What potential sanctions/discipline or remedies are appropriate

Robbins Schwartz

45

Investigation: Relevant Evidence

- Generally irrelevant:
 - Information protected by a legally recognized privilege
 - A party’s medical, psychological, or other similar treatment records (without written consent)
 - Prior disciplinary history (except to determine potential sanctions/discipline)
 - A Complainant’s sexual predisposition or sexual history

Robbins Schwartz

46

Investigation: Rape Shield Protections

- During the question submission process, certain questions are irrelevant and not permitted. As a result, investigators also should consider evidence about the following topics irrelevant:
 - the Complainant's sexual pre-disposition, and
 - the Complainant's prior sexual behavior, unless:
 - the evidence is offered to prove that someone other than the Respondent committed the alleged conduct; or
 - the evidence concerns specific incidents of the Complainant's prior sexual behavior with respect to the Respondent and is offered to prove consent

Robbins Schwartz

47

Investigation: Access to Evidence

- Both parties must have equal access to inspect and review all evidence that is directly related to the complaint allegations.
 - Be mindful of FERPA, ISSRA and other privacy considerations
 - Consider whether redactions are necessary
 - Notify parties of parameters/limitations on re-disclosure of records and evidence

Robbins Schwartz

48

Investigation: Access to Evidence

- At the end of the investigation and before completing the investigator's report, the investigator must send both parties a copy of all relevant evidence.

- Notice Letter to Complainant/Respondent of Investigation Evidence and Right to File Response

Robbins Schwartz

49

Investigation: Hypothetical

- You are investigating allegations that Jane's teacher Mr. Jones started giving her lower grades on her assignments after she turned down his requests to take her on a date.
- Are either of the following relevant?
 - Jane's sexual orientation?
 - Jane's relationship with a teacher two years ago?
- When sharing evidence, should you redact:
 - Jane's grades in Mr. Jones' class or other classes?
 - Testimony from Jane's social worker?
 - The name of Katy, another student witness?
 - Mr. Jones' disciplinary history?

Robbins Schwartz

50

Investigation: Preparation of Investigation Report

- The parties will have 10 school business days to submit a written response to the evidence, which the investigator must consider prior to completing the investigative report.
- The investigator must create an investigative report that fairly summarizes the relevant evidence and forward the report to the decision-maker.
 - Investigation Report Template

Robbins Schwartz

51

Investigation: Preparation of Investigation Report

- Parts of an investigation report:
 - Summary of complaint allegations
 - Definition(s) of sexual harassment and any other misconduct at issue
 - Description of steps in the investigation process
 - Summary of supportive measures, emergency removal, and/or administrative leave
 - Summaries of relevant evidence from:
 - Interviews
 - Documents
 - Written responses
 - Recommended findings of fact (optional)

Robbins Schwartz

52

Key Takeaways and Recommendations for Investigators

Prepare for Success

Robbins Schwartz

53

Takeaways and Recommendations

- 1) "Begin with the end in mind"
 - Think about what the decision-maker will need
 - Prepare outlines for interviews
- 2) Break it down
 - Consider what facts are most important for each part of an alleged policy violation

Robbins Schwartz

54

Takeaways and Recommendations

- 3) Show your work...
 - Document the steps you take
 - Take interview notes, including about your credibility determinations
 - Keep copies of or notes on communications with the parties
- 4) ...but not confidential records.
 - Don't share irrelevant evidence.
 - Redact when necessary.
- 5) Treat the parties equitably.
