Welcome to the February edition of The Scoop @ Robbins Schwartz!

We're so glad you're here. Each month, we share a look inside firm life — celebrating our people, highlighting meaningful moments, and showcasing opportunities to grow with us. Whether you're part of the Robbins Schwartz family or exploring a future here, we're happy to have you along.

Here's what we were up to in February:

Step-Up Challenge Winners!

Our firmwide voluntary Step-Up Challenge has officially wrapped — and we have our winners! It was great to see so many team members participate, cheer each other on, and prioritize wellness together. We hope the momentum carries us through Wellness Month and beyond — whether you're a marathoner or just enjoying a lunchtime stroll.

One "Suite" CELEBRATION

We marked one year in our Chicago suite with a celebratory happy hour! It was a fun way to toast the milestone, reflect on the year, and enjoy time together in the space we now call home.

— Our Firm Community —

Lunar New Year Lunchtime Fun

To celebrate Lunar New Year, the team gathered for a lunchtime game of Yutnori, a traditional Korean board game similar to “Sorry!” and often played during New Year celebrations to bring good luck in the year ahead. It was a wonderful opportunity to learn something new, share traditions, and enjoy a little friendly competition.

Liz in Action >>>>

We're proud to spotlight Elizabeth Becker, who recently served as a facilitator at the National Panhellenic Conference Inc. College Panhellenic Academy. Her passion for student leadership, fostering belonging, and advancing NPC values truly shined. Way to go, Liz!

Cheers to Our Team

Nathan Du, celebrated 3 years with the firm

Niki Lamprinakos, celebrated 15 years with the firm

Zaria Udeh, celebrated 10 years with the firm

Ryan O'Malley, celebrated 1 year with the firm
